

Arlington College Choir to Sing At South Bay Church of God Here

Professor Frederick G. Schackleton, director of the Department of Music of Arlington College, will present the Arlington College Choir in a concert of sacred music Sunday, May 15, 8 p.m. at the South Bay Church of God, 17661 Yukon, according to an announcement by the pastor, Rev. Clifford L. Tierney.

FREDERICK SHACKLETON Brings Choir Here

The Arlington College Choir Spring Tour will extend over several weeks, throughout the Southern and Central California area. The 25-voice choir is made up of students from eight states, Michigan, Arizona, California, Oregon, Kansas, Colorado, Ohio and Pennsylvania. The choir will present between 15 and 20 inspiring Gospel Hymns and songs, many of them universally known and loved, such as The Ole Ark's A-Moverin', The Old Rugged Cross, Were You There, Jesus Savior Pilot Me, and A Mighty Fortress is Our God.

PROFESSOR Schackleton has specially arranged several num-

St. Matthew Selects Two As Delegates

Mmes. Joan Thomure and Grace Stern of the Ladies' Guild of St. Matthew Lutheran Church, Harbor City, have been elected delegates of the Eighth Biennial Convention of the Southern California District of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League, convening at the Ambassador Hotel, Los Angeles on May 21 and 22. Mrs. Joan Burge, will attend in place of Mrs. Thomure as alternate delegate.

Featured speaker at these two days' sessions will be Miss Rosa Young of Selma Ala. Miss Young, the author of a "Best Seller," "Light in the Dark Belt," now in its fourth edition, is a pioneer in Lutheran Mission Work in Alabama.

Also on the program is Prof. F. L. Precht of Concordia Seminary, Springfield, Ill. He will address the group on the subject "On Tour with the Concordia Seminary Chorus Behind the Iron Curtain." Prof. Precht will also lead a song service and direct the District LWML chorus to be heard at various times during the session.

"LUTHERANISM in Southern California" is the title of a pageant to be presented Saturday night at a banquet in the Embassy Room. Rev. Victor L. Kehnen of Laguna Beach, president of the Southern California District of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, will be the speaker. Newly elected officers will also be installed.

Guests will have luncheon on Sunday in the world famous Coconut Grove and will be entertained while dining with a humorous hat show. This event is at 12:30.

Mrs. Walter Rosenbrock, district president, will preside at the convention which is being hosted by the Northwest Zone of the District LWML, with Mrs. Emil Voges of Canoga Park acting as chairman. Mrs. C. Kauer of Ventura is co-chairman.

IMPORTANT business on the agenda will be the selecting of projects for the coming biennium. The District League completed payment of $11,000 on March 1 in grants to the Church Extension Board which was used by missions in Santa Paula, Ojai and Perris, Calif. and $800 was given to the Lutheran Deaconess Society for a scholarship.

Monies for projects are collected solely through voluntary contributions of the members in using Mite Boxes.
